Vivian Locking and Ramona McDaniel to Coordinate SHBA's Two Major Community Events

Join us in welcoming VIVIAN LOCKING (Willstaff Worldwide) and RAMONA McDANIEL (Interface Security Systems. Vivian will coordinate the Christmas In The Hills community Christmas tree project along with other activities surrounding the holidays. Ramona will coordinate activities related to the annual Town Hall event with Business Expo and Taste of Southern Hills.

The Town Hall Event is scheduled for Tuesday, October 26, 2006, at Summer Grove at South Park. Last year's event drew almost 3,000 visitors into Southern Hills for the festivities.

Give Ramona a call at 458-3544 for sponsorship information or to volunteer to help. SHBA is looking to business sponsorships to support this outstanding annual event.

Christmas In The Hills community Christmas Trees will again decorate the business corridors of our Southern Hills neighborhood throughout December. In addition, David Cox plans and SHHA plan a bigger and better Christmas Parade. This event brought some 5,000 visitors and residents out to celebrate Give Vivian a call at 469-3018 for sponsorship information, to volunteer, to donate green space, or to submit a youth or civic group as volunteers to decorate one or more trees. SHBA is looking to the financial community (banks, savings and loans, mortgage companies and credit unions) to sponsor this community wide holiday event.

Both the Town Hall Event and Christmas In The Hills are extremely important to Southern Hills in terms of bringing people into the area and focusing positive attention on the many unique characteristics of Southern Hills.

Economic development grant funding is practically nonexistent in Louisiana since the devastation caused by Hurricanes Katrina and Rita. Area businesses and financial institutions are desperately needed to step up to the plate in order for these events to survive and grow.

Mr. & Mrs. Roy Milam no doubt had an unforgettable Valentines Day!

The Southern Hills Business Association recently participated as a ticket sales partner in the Gilbert & Sullivan Society's String of Pearls raffle for $10,000 in fabulous jewelry prizes.

We can just imagine the smile that spread across Mrs. Milam's face on Valentine's Day when SHBA member Roy Milam (Milam Electric) presented her with the gorgeous teardrop earrings and necklace set from the Stephen Miller Fine Jewelry collection, valued at $1,140!

Congratulations, Roy ... and thank you for supporting a project endorsed by the Southern Hills Business Association! Your ongoing support and participation are much appreciated. We are certain your wife was delighted!

Little by little the phones are starting to ring and people are asking about available space in Southern Hills. We have endured the dreadful downward of the past several years and now this trend is showing signs of reversing.

Summer Grove Baptist Church at South Park is about to open their new sanctuary. Herby K's, Barksdale Federal Credit Union, and Ashley Automotive are moving into the area. Several other businesses and restaurants are looking at potential sites.

The mayoral race has begun and Southern Hills will play an integral part in the election through the Mayoral Forum planned for our October 24 Town Hall event.

SHBA's two major annual events now have coordinators on the ground with plans unfolding for another successful Town Hall, Business Expo, Taste of Southern Hills event (October 24), followed closely by the Christmas In The Hills community Christmas tree program and Christmas parade.

Spring is on the horizon, though it would have been hard to recognize during the winter storm that gripped our city recently. Also on the horizon is a new and exciting era of growth for Southern Hills with special events that focus more positive attention on the area.

Your help is needed to achieve SHBA's objectives of community renewal, economic development, and reinvestment. I would welcome your call (688-7890) if you are willing to be part of the solution and are looking for a meaningful way to serve your community!
